FREEMAN'S CHLORODYNE.

The Original and only True.

DISCOVERED and invented by Richard Freeman in 1844. Introduced into India in 1850, and subsequently into the Australasian Colonies, Egypt, China, and every other part of the HABITABLE GLOBE.

In the following diseases, no matter in what part of the world they are found, FREEMAN'S CHLORODYNE is a special and specific remedy.—Dysentery, Ague, Dysentery (both acute and chronic), ardent, dengue and all other kinds of Fever, Cramp, Colic, Gout, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Wind-stroke, Sore Throat, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, Epilepsy, Hysteria, Spasms, Sunstroke, Convulsions, Sciatica, Lumbago, Cholera, and Yellow Fever.

FREEMAN'S CHLORODYNE allays the irritation of Fever, soothes and strengthens the system under exhaustive diseases, restores the deranged functions, stimulates healthy action of the secretion of the body, gives quiet and refreshing sleep, and marvellously prolongs life. It may be taken by old and young, at all hours and times, according to the directions.

The great characteristic of FREEMAN'S CHLORODYNE is its marvellous power to assuage PAIN of every kind, which no other preparation sold under a similar name possesses in anything like the same degree, has attracted the attention of sufferers in all parts of the world.

One of the most marked symptoms of CANCER is the PAIN—pain of the most severe, intermitting, neuralgic sort, gradually increasing in severity, left in the tumour itself as a sharp, stabbing or burning sensation. FREEMAN'S ORIGINAL CHLORODYNE is now acknowledged to surpass all other known remedies in allaying the pain of Cancer. Mr. Freeman's Pamphlet on the treatment and cure of Cancer will be forwarded post-free.

Manufactured by the Sole Inventor, RICHARD FREEMAN, Pharmacist, 70, Kennington Park Road, London, S.E.

Sold by Chemists and Patent Medicine Dealers in all parts of the World, in bottles, 1s. 1d.; 2 oz., 2s. 9d.; 4 oz., 4s. 6d.; half-pint, 11s.; and pint, 20s. each.
 N.B.—Lord Chancellor Selborne, Lord Justice James, and Lord Justice Mellish, decided in favour of FREEMAN'S ORIGINAL CHLORODYNE, and against Brown & Thompson, compelling them to pay all costs in the suits.—See Times of July 24th, 1873.

A RATIONAL CURE FOR BRONCHIAL, ASTHMA, A CONSTITUTIONAL COUGHS AND COLDS.

Dear Sir,—I feel it my duty to add my mite in praise of ENO'S "VEGETABLE MOTO." I have suffered from a constitutional Cough all my life, and this winter caught a cold which developed into Bronchitis and Asthma. In this dilemma my attention was directed to your "VEGETABLE MOTO," and I determined, much on the principle that drugging men catch at straws, to give the "MOTO" a trial. I am happy to say that after a few doses, I was in every way satisfied by finding them more than answer my best expectations. They move the bowels without pain, and keep a continuous, mild, and natural act for several days without being obliged to stay away from business or fear of taking cold, and they add greatly to my general comfort.

It is a just statement when I say you cannot overrate their value in keeping the blood pure, and that means prevent and remove Coughs and Colds and disastrous blood poisons.

I enclose my card, and as one who is grateful, shall feel obliged by your making any of this letter my desire.

To J. C. ENO.

Yours obediently,
X. Y. Z.

SLEEPLESSNESS AND NIGHTMARE FROM LIVER DERANGEMENT.

Dr. MURCHINSON says:—Sleeplessness may arise from different causes, one being derangement of the liver. When that is the case, the patient is often heavy and drowsy after a few hours of sleep, or after one or two hours he awakes, and then he either lies awake, or constantly falling asleep, or having the nightmare, until the morning comes, when he drops into a quiet sleep for an hour or more or he is obliged to get up tired and irritable. This sleeplessness is often induced by articles of diet, or by some unwholesome combination of them. What will excite heat, acidity, or disorders of circulation in some patients, will in another cause sleeplessness. This symptom will occur when the patient is most careful as to diet. What is important times this symptom will occur when the patient is most careful as to diet. What is important times this symptom will occur when the patient is most careful as to diet.

note is, that in most of these cases there are no obvious symptoms of gastric dyspepsia; the appetite may be good; the bowels may be regular, and there is no pain, flatulence, or other discomfort, after meals; but there will be found an unusual tendency to the deposit of lithates in the urine, and very often phenomena of a so-called gouty diathesis.

A gentleman writes:—I have taken the Motos for upwards of two years, previous to which I was troubled with sleeplessness and bilious headaches, have not lost one hour's sleep since taking them.—Yours, &c., PLAIN TRUTH.

PREVENTION.—THE RECURRENCE OF SMALL AILMENTS can only be averted by strict attention to Dietetic Rules, also Rules for life. EACH BOTTLE OF ENO'S "VEGETABLE MOTO" is given a sixteen page Pamphlet (entitled "Duty") on the prevention of Disease.

ENO'S "VEGETABLE MOTO," of all Chemists, Price 1s. 1½d.; post free, 1s. 3d.

Dear Sirs,—MADAME MARIE ROZE desires me to say that she recognises in your preparation the precious Saline that she found so invaluable when she visited New Orleans during the last Yellow Fever epidemic. Madame Roze was advised by Dr. Barnes, of London, to take your Saline with her, and we took several dozen bottles, and I really believe IT SAVED OUR LIVES! Having forgotten the name "Lamplough," we have frequently asked for effervescent magnesia and similar preparations, but failed to obtain anything equal to your preparation, and we are very pleased to be again provided with the very article we have been anxious to obtain for years.

Yours faithfully,

THE ART OF LONGEVITY.

DR. DIET says "Leave off with a desire to eat more."

DR. QUIET says "Do unto others as you would they should do unto you."

DR. MERRYMAN says: "A merry heart goes all the day; a sad one but an hour."

DR. COMMONSENSE says: "The healthiest occasionally suffer from temporary derangement of the Stomach and Liver. ENO'S "FRUIT SALT" and ENO'S VEGETABLE MOTO" ought to be kept in every Household and every Travelling Trunk in readiness for any emergency. They always do good; never do harm. They are as gentle as the dewdrop and as sure as Quarter Day."

THE PIVOT OF DUTY.—STERLING HONESTY OF PURPOSE; WITHOUT IT LIFE IS A SHAM!

THE SECRET OF SUCCESS—"A new invention is brought before the public, and commands success. A score of ABOMINABLE IMITATIONS are immediately introduced by the unscrupulous, who, in copying the original closely enough to deceive the public and yet not so exactly as to infringe upon legal rights, exercise an ingenuity that, employed in an original channel, could not fail to secure reputation and profit."—ADAMS.

What higher aim can man attain, than conquest over human pain.

For Health and Longevity, use ENO'S "FRUIT SALT."

The value of ENO'S "FRUIT SALT" cannot be told. Its success in Europe, Asia, Africa, America, Australia, and New Zealand proves it.

ENO'S FRUIT SALT possesses the power of reparation when digestion has been disturbed or lost through Alcoholic drinks, fatty substances, or want of exercise. If its great value in keeping the body in health were universally known, no family would be without it.

ENO'S FRUIT SALT.—"After suffering two and a half years from severe headache and disordered stomach, and after trying almost everything without any benefit, I was recommended to try ENO'S FRUIT SALT, and, before I had finished one bottle I found it doing me a great deal of good, and am restored to my usual health. And others I know that have tried it, have not enjoyed such good health for years."

"Yours most truly, ROBERT HUMPHREYS, Post Office, Barrasford.

CAUTION.—Examine each Bottle, and see that the Capsule is marked ENO'S "FRUIT SALT." Without it, you have been imposed on by a worthless imitation. SOLD BY ALL CHEMISTS.

PREPARED ONLY AT ENO'S "FRUIT SALT" WORKS, LONDON BY J. C. ENO'S PATENT.

POSTAL RATES, REGULATIONS, AND INFORMATION, &c.

1. LETTERS.

Inland.—The Postage is, not exceeding 1oz., 1d.; not exceeding 2ozs., 1½d. and for all greater weights 3d. additional for every 2ozs. No letter packet may exceed 18in. by 9in. by 6in.

For Foreign letters the dimensions allowed are 2ft. by 1ft. by 1ft.

2. POST CARDS.

Inland.—Thin 5½d., thick 6d. for ten, or singly at 3d. each, either sort. Nothing whatever may appear on the front or stamped side but the address, nor may anything be attached to the front or back, under penalty of 1d. on delivery.

Foreign.—1d., 1½d. and 2d. each, may be sent to all countries in the Postal Union; the rate varying according to destination.

Reply.—Reply Post Cards, for use in the United Kingdom, and to most Countries in the Postal Union, are issued at double the cost of ordinary Post Cards.

3. NEWSPAPERS.

Inland.—Registered newspapers (i.e., those which, having paid a fee of 6s., have been registered at the General Post Office for transmission at the newspaper rate) may be sent to any part of the United Kingdom at a uniform rate of 3d. each, but a packet of several is not chargeable with higher postage than the book rate of 3d. for every 2 ozs. The packet must be made up without a cover, or in a cover open at ends, and so that the contents can easily be examined, be fully prepaid, and contain no writing but the address. No packet may exceed 14 lbs. in weight, 2 ft. in length, or 1 ft. in width or depth. Unregistered newspapers are subject to book post rates.

Foreign.—Packets for countries in the Postal Union must not exceed 18 in. in length, or 1 ft. in width or depth, or 4 lbs. in weight. For other places, 2 ft. in length, or 1 ft. in width or depth, or 5 lbs. in weight.

Wrappers.—Wrappers for enclosing newspapers and book packets are issued, bearing stamps of the value of 3d. and 1d., and are sold in bundles of 7 halfpenny ones for 4d., and 8 penny ones at 5½d., or singly at 3d. and 1½d. each.

4. BOOK PACKETS.

Inland.—No Book Packet may exceed 6 lbs. in weight, 1 ft. 6 in. in length, 9 in. wide, and 6 in. in depth. The ends must be left open, and they must be prepaid in stamps at the rate of 3d. for every 2 oz. or fraction of same. If insufficiently prepaid, they will be charged with double the deficiency, but any packet which bears no postage stamps will be charged double postage.

Foreign.—The regulations as to packets for places abroad are in most cases the same as for Inland Packets. The limits of weight and size are the same as for newspapers for countries in the Postal Union.

5. SAMPLE & PATTERN POST.

Inland.—This is confined to bona fide patterns and samples of merchandise. Rates: under 4 oz. 1d., from 4 oz. to 6 oz. 1½d.; from 6 oz. to 8 oz. (maximum) 2d.

Foreign.—The limit of weight is not the same to all countries.

6. PARCEL POST.

Inland.—The rate of postage (to be prepaid in ordinary postage stamps) is 3d. for a parcel not exceeding 1 lb.; and 1½d. for every additional lb. up to 11 lbs.,

POSTAL RATES AND REGULATIONS.—contd.

which is the maximum allowed. The dimensions allowed for an Inland Postal Parcel are:—maximum length, 3 ft. 6 in.; maximum length and girth combined, 6 ft. Examples.—A parcel measuring 3 ft. 6 in. in its longest dimension may measure as much as 2 ft. 6 in. in girth, i.e., round its thickest part; or a shorter parcel may be thicker—e.g., if measuring no more than 3 ft. in length, it may measure as much as 3 ft. in girth, i.e., around its thickest part.

Foreign and Colonial.—Parcels can now be sent to most Countries. The rates of postage, weight and size differ for different countries, and inquiry should in all cases be made at a Receiving House, or particulars ascertained from the Post Office Guides, sold at any Post Office 1d. and 6d.

LONDON POSTAL INFORMATION.

Evening Mails.—At St. Martin's-le-Grand the letter boxes close at 6, but letters for inland circulation may be posted till 7.45 for 4d. extra. Those for places abroad, posted after 6 and up to 7 p.m., must be paid 1d. extra, till 7.15, 2d. extra, and up to 7.30 the additional charge is 3d. Newspapers and book packets are received—those for inland circulation to 5.30—and for places abroad until 6 p.m., or till 6.45 on payment of an additional 4d., till 7.15 on payment of 4d. At the Branch Offices in Lombard Street, Gracechurch Street, Mark Lane, Ludgate Circus, Charing Cross, and at the Chief District Offices letters are received until 6 p.m., or till 7 p.m. if bearing an extra 4d. stamp for inland, and 1d. for places abroad. The latest hour for the receipt of newspapers at these offices is 5.30 p.m.

Special Late Fee Boxes are placed at the railway stations, from which Mail Trains, having Travelling Post Offices, are despatched every evening, for letters, for provinces and Continent of Europe. Letters thus posted for the continent must bear a 4d. stamp in addition to ordinary postage, those for provinces a 3d. stamp.

Morning Mails.—Letter boxes at Receiving Houses are open till 9 p.m. on previous evening for newspapers and letters; and at District Offices until 6 a.m. Letters can be posted at Pillar Boxes till 4 a.m. Letters for Ireland and Scotland posted at St. Martin's-le-Grand before 6.15 a.m., go by Morning Mails; or in late fee boxes at Euston Station, up to departure of respective Trains, for 4d. stamp in addition to postage.

mine preling badly well. Pined of gout $\frac{1}{2}$ hour of pain because I didn't put back again the foot punishment because I didn't pick up a roll that was not mine

11 SUNDAY—1 aft Epiph [11-354]

Mass. Walk. Drawing. Salut.
Communion were the principal events of the day. Now
I withdraw

Hilary Law Sittings begin

Went to Regnerie at 12 p.m. for P. Delebeque came back at 8 p.m. My Regnerie was a very complicated affair
 It was for Chedard, Prop. Delebeque and a few others put in their word and so to "expier mes peches"
 I went there wrote 850 lines slightly reddy not much. gave a stamp to Verones at 7.30 p.m.
 Slept soundly all night

13 TUESDAY [13-352]

6.25 c. amende I got as a book l'amburge de l'ange gardien. Pretty good for procureur 4.50 I only asked for 0.50 but he mistook me and gave me 7.50 so I accepted the charge. It grieved me sorely to do it you know but I couldn't help it. Didn't do it on purpose at least I didn't want to so goodbye

14 WEDNESDAY [14-351]

Oxford Hilary Term begins

Started at 4 p.m. played "Horseshoe" at 12 p.m. lathed and walked at 10. p.m. lathed and shinned at 7. p.m. At each number you must add 36 to get to have 6.30 p.m. 12.30 p.m.
 10.30 p.m. 7.30 a.m. so now you know what I did the rest of the time I did "blagues" that is to say in class and in study

Walk near ender. We saw a carriage going in with a coffin. Pretty cold in one part of the way. Cold and warm in the other part. The cold part was down hill the warm part up hill fearfully sliding chariot was pushed down by famine and roared and kicked till it could come by just to show him that he had been thrown down

16 FRIDAY [16-349]

Spence whole day. Retire at noon. Thated at 4 p.m. at open although I was in bed but after that quarter of an hour my finger tips began to freeze my ears began to get frozen and my nose was washed as a terrible cold. Concoors in History did mine pretty badly will be in the East land.

17 SATURDAY [17-348]

6th 18th A.M.

Spence at breakfast play no retine but billiards from 12.30 to 1.30
I played whole time as you can see I love billiards I hope I will bring back his billiards from Chicago. He after

18 SUNDAY - 2 aft Epiph [18-347]

Thou walk. I would d-d love must excuse my wearing a hat
I really can't help it you know but - I must do it barely

January [19 to 21]

19 MONDAY [19-346]

[1st Month] 1891

Played billiards. Incline. Long deer.
Horribly cold nearly finished my book. we've not quite it in L'auvergne de L'auvergne garden horribly stupid book you know You nearly nose to get a fine book because I've not made a single decoration so as there are simply a heap about as they are. I've not you can guess.

20 TUESDAY [20-345]

Library. Got "Memoires d'un âne" and book it's not bad you know it's rather stupid all the same however that's nothing at all as it my sweetest deer of the life of you and me. Wrote a letter to Val. Pretty cold played billiards from 12.30 to 4

21 WEDNESDAY [21-344]

Nothing particular happened to day as far as I can remember The Wednesdays are impossible to be filled up you know

1891 [31 Days]

22 THURSDAY [22-343]

[22 to 25] January

Snowed a heap clearing well. At that time after our ranting ourselves we were assaulted by a pack a cads who stoned snowballs we reported violently
One boy hit another boy six times running on the same place His name is Lironix. Terribly tired in eve. Goodbye ha ha ha got letter from Val

23 FRIDAY [23-343]

Concours in Thene le Prince Baudouin died he was the presumptive inheritor of the Belgian crown. I did my concours BEASTLY — now you don't know if I mean beastly well or badly. Right free air more right than in eve. I hope it will know like hell

24 SATURDAY [24-341]

The boys kicked up a terrible duney in study just as the prefect came in to proclaim the notes. I was needy
2-7 for study

25 Septuagesima SUNDAY [25-340]
Conversion of St. Paul O 0^h 25^m A.M.

Still a little needy I hope it will soon go away it is a bother you know

January [26 to 28]

26 MONDAY [26-339]

[1st Month] 1891

My place was.... that means after 18. Never mind reverse is close at hand. Changed names instead of Gregorie I've got Monagues I'm not sure if he is any better than the other however we'll soon see that affair
but now I know the work

Goodbye

27 TUESDAY [27-338]

No book because the fig of a prop wouldn't sign my note. Terrible then.
Futuristic walk. Filly boots Oh! I hope you'll forgive me saying all those mangy words went to Producers and he weren't there

28 WEDNESDAY [28-337]

Nothing much to say a little silence not much forgot to go to procurator at 10.30 will go however to morrow if he is there. By the way to me is a whole holiday. Please Prize Band down to head. and so the old (ie) stick up a ladder (weren't they glad)

Whole holiday to day. Two walks, 3 hours study. two hour recreation one hour the hour I hour man, it was a (low-high) man a thing which one sees very seldom. It was high & because it was in church and there were two words in red. It was low because it only lasted 1 hour and the S.S. was not exposed. They found it

30 FRIDAY [30-335]

Concours in geography. Did mine muddling well. Dry bread in eve. Was shut up at about 5.45 p.m. till 8.30 p.m.
The Playground is nearly dry now - I'm showing all sorts of things at the end of my diary there are already
3. two photos and a picture. I hope to have more soon

31 SATURDAY [31-334]

Letter from father or rather from mother saying that Namoa was ravaged by Chinese. Soak was murdered and two of friends also.

1 Feb Sexagesima SUNDAY [32-333]

Dr. Herbert Giles, of Aberdeen, has accepted the Professorship of Chinese at Cambridge University. He was for a quarter of a century in the Chinese Consular service, and is the author of a number of important Chinese books. He commences his duties in November.

The Tertians are again coming out strong. Mr. Lionel Giles, a member of that class, has gained an Exhibition of £30 per annum for three years, at Wadham College, Oxon. We congratulate him.

Mr. Valentine Giles, first year's student, takes 14th place in Woolwich Entrance Examination. He has had no private tuition beyond the able superintendence of "Davie" Rennet—which says a good deal for both, considering the establishments like Wren and Gurney of London, pitted against them.

THE DEBATING FINALE AGAIN.

DEAR SIRS,—I was very much disgusted at seeing on the syllabus of the Debating Society that a Finale had been settled for February 4th. At a committee meeting last April, it was decided that the committee should take no hand in the organisation of a Finale in the ensuing year. This decision was largely due to the influence of those men who had wasted so much trouble, not to mention time, on the Finale of 1896. That the two oldest and most experienced men of the committee should have resigned their office at this juncture seems a very significant step; and it is probably due to the fact that a Finale was insisted upon by the rising dignitaries of the Society, who have not yet learned what a thankless task it is to organise a Finale for the amusement of rowdy Bajans, who deprive all other spectators of any enjoyment they might have had. One consolation is that the committee will have the certain satisfaction of knowing that these turbulent spirits will not annoy anybody again at the Finale, as probably nobody but themselves will trouble to go to the "entertainment." There is, however, still time for these young fledglings in office—I, of course, am not speaking of the worthy President or a few superior men, whose mettle has been proved—to retract their decision, and let the Finale be arranged and managed by such of these funny men who feel competent for the task, and for the outlay.

Wishing them success in pleasurable anticipation,
I am, L.G.

LAMPLOUGH'S PYRETIC SALINE.

The specific for all Feverish Symptoms arising from disordered stomach, heated blood, over exertion in sun heat, or sudden chills, and admittedly the most absolute thirst quencher known.

THE MISSING ODE OF ANACREON!!!

The earth was in gloom and the sky was overcast;
The storm and the rain cloud were gathering fast;
The Gods in Olympus were heavy with wine,
Till Jupiter called for "Pyretic Saline."
The bright flashing goblet the Thunderer quaffed,
And glad shone the sun on the earth as he laughed;
Ho, sunshine and youth shall for ever be mine,
For the essence of life is "Pyretic Saline."
He gazed on the myriads toiling below,
And prophetic he spake, "This Celestial flow
Shall some day be known, now a secret divine,
To mortals as Lamplough's Pyretic Saline."

FLEAS IN DOGS.

"There is no one, save the poor animal himself, knows the misery and wretchedness that fleas cause to a dog. It is not too much to say that they cost thousands of valuable animals their lives, for not only is sleep thereby banished and nervous ailments induced, but the constant scratching spoils the coat and brings on skin disease. Naldire's Dog Soap destroys these pests, and changes many a miserable cur into a well-feathered, sleek, and happy dog."

DR. LALOR'S PHOSPHODYNE

For TWENTY-EIGHT YEARS has maintained its world-wide reputation as the ONLY SAFE, RELIABLE PHOSPHORIC REMEDY ever discovered.

IT CURES Overworked Brain, Sleeplessness, Premature Decay of Vital Power, and all Functional and Diseased Conditions of the System, dependent upon the deficiency of the Vital Forces.—Dyspepsia, Nerve and Heart Disease, Disorders of the Blood.—Kidney and Liver complaints.—Consumption and General Debility.—And checks all wasting of the Vital Forces from whatever cause arising. All the miserable Feelings and Distressing Symptoms disappearing with a rapidity that is REALLY MARVELLOUS.

DR. LALOR'S PHOSPHODYNE actually creates New Nervous Fluid and Brain Matter by supplying the Blood with its Life element, PHOSPHORUS, the very Core and Centre of the Brain itself, and kindles afresh the Fire of Life from the Sole of the Foot to the Crown of the Head, restoring the fullest and most vigorous conditions of Robust Health of Body and Mind, so that all the Duties of Life may be pursued with Confidence and Pleasure.

DR. LALOR'S PHOSPHODYNE is the only Medicine of the kind or name awarded Certificate of Merit at the Calcutta Exhibition 1883-4, where all countries were Exhibitors. Thousands of unimpeachable Testimonials from all parts of the World, and from the highest Medical Authorities, prove conclusively the Verdict Universal that in the World of Scientific research no other Phosphoric Preparation has received such exalted praise and distinguished recognition.

MEMORY. "LOISETTE'S SYSTEM,"

Says the Pall Mall Gazette, "is tremendously popular in Oxford." (2) A Cambridge University Lecturer (Dr. R. N. Ingle, M.A.), says (Jan. 1890), "I was much impressed with the possibilities of improvement to Memory which your lectures open up to careful study." (3) "I intend to educate my son entirely on your system."—Rev. C. E. Cockin, M.A., Oxon. (4) "Physiological and scientific in the highest degree."—Dr. Andrew Wilson (Sept. 1883). "We again recommend this system." (Jan. 1889). (5) "The value of the fee returned to me twenty-fold."—Dr. Albert Carter. (6) "I learned Chardenal's Rules of the French Language in one reading."—W. C. Patterson. (7) "Of great advantage to a strong memory, incalculable aid to a weak one."—Dr. J. M. Buckley. (8) "I have memorised the heads of a sermon as I heard them."—A. L. Husband. (9) "The application of your system numerous as the affairs of life."—Rev. J. Amos, M.A., Camb. (10) "Easily acquired and very interesting."—Rev. S. Bell, M.A. (Feb. 1883). (11) "Cure of mind-wandering, and increase of vocabulary."—J. Macgregor, M.A. (12) "Top in Examination."—T. Tait, M.A. (13) "Some of the exercises I have done in railway travelling."—Rev. R. Picton, B.A. (14) Mr. D. Greenleaf Thompson ("A System of Psychology," Longmans), Dr. W. A. Hammond and Dr. M. L. Holbrook (Author of "How to Strengthen the Memory") testify that the LOISETTE SYSTEM is original and of great value. PLAGUE RIOTS IN INDIA.

The following details have been received (says the Allahabad correspondent of The Times) with respect to a plague riot which has occurred at Seringapatam on the 18th inst. First an attempt to rescue the prisoners concerned in an earlier riot was made by 1,000 Hindoos and Mohammedans of the fisherman class. Detachments of the Mysore State Cavalry and the military police faced the mob, who were armed with guns, swords, axes, and other weapons. The police fired, killing two and wounding several. The cavalry charged the mob, who dispersed temporarily, carrying away their dead and wounded. Later on the rioters reinforced to the number of 10,000 by contingents from the villages, converged on Seringapatam and made a desperate effort to enter the fort, to which the prisoners had been removed for greater safety. The crowd came by the north railway bridge towards the island, some attempting to swim the Kaveri River. The police fired, killing and wounding several, some of the rioters dropping into the water. An hour later another large body of excited rioters arrived from the Mysore side of Seringapatam and attempted to rush the bridge from the southern side? but they were effectually stopped by volleys from the police, more being killed and wounded on the bridge and while attempting to cross the river. The town became quiet at dusk. One hundred and thirty-four prisoners were sent by special train to Bangalore and safely lodged in gaol. The police were under arms for nearly thirty-six hours in Seringapatam. The cavalry at the scene of the disturbance, fifty strong, having been reported insufficient to meet further possible developments, the Diwan of Mysore despatched 100 di-mounted Imperial Service Lancers, under the command of Major Godfrey Jones. The riot was the most serious and determined which has occurred lately. The Mysore authorities acted promptly, under the advice of the British Resident.

ALDERMAN Sir Stuart Knill, who was Lord Mayor in 1893, when the Duke of York was married, died on Saturday after a month's illness. He is succeeded in the Baronetcy by his son Mr. John Knill, who is also an Alderman of the City.

OLD FALSE TEETH BOUGHT.

Many ladies and gentlemen have by them old or disused false teeth, which might as well be turned into money. Messrs. R. D. & J. B. Fraser, of Princes Street, Ipswich, (established since 1833), buy old false teeth. If you send your teeth to them they will remit you by return post the utmost value; or, if preferred, they will make you the best offer, and hold the teeth over for your reply. If reference necessary, apply to Messrs. Bacon and Co., Bankers, Ipswich.

(Before His Honour Judge Bagshawe, Q.C.)

THE CAMBRIDGE BILL-POSTING COMPANY.

The Cambridge Bill-Posting Company sued Hlesley, late Secretary of the Company, for £56 balance on the Company's revenue account. Defendant counter-claimed 15s. for money paid £7 4s. 2d. for commission per agreement.

Dr. COOPER (instructed by Mr. S. J. Mi appeared for plaintiffs. Defendant was not represented.

Dr. COOPER explained that the question was commission defendant was entitled to on Company's profits. Under an agreement defendant was to receive a salary, 7½ per cent. of the profit of the year of his appointment—1896, and 10 per cent. of the profits of the following year. Defendant paid the stipulated commission on the net profit 1896, which were £126 11s. 9d. He, however, claimed commission also on £33 9s. 7d., which resolution of the Directors was put into a Susp Account, whilst in the following year he claimed per cent. on another Suspense Account of £34 0s. Defendant gave the Company receipts for commission paid him and never made any claim; he had quitted the service of the Company.

His HONOUR pointed out that it was not a deduct on honorarium to a previous Secretary—a accounts showed had been done—from the net profit. The question was, what constituted the net profit. The honorarium should have been debited to account of the year in which the recipient was in service of the Company. He did not think the fact defendant deferred his claim until he had left Company's service affected its validity.

Mr. R. Peters, auditor of the Company, said audited the balance sheet from Feb. 23 to Dec. Defendant prepared the accounts. Witness for the profits for the first year were £126 11s. 9d. the time defendant did not object to the amount down as profits.

His HONOUR and Counsel then exhaustively discussed the accounts and eventually his HONOUR reserved judgment.

CLAIM AGAINST EXECUTORS.

BOWERS v. AYRES.—This was an action brought by Mrs. Bowers, a lodging-housekeeper, of Ruse Street, against three brothers named Ayres, whom was alleged were executors of E. J. Ayres, who died on April 22nd. The amount of the claim was £23 8s. 5d. for board and lodgings and a debt incurred by deceased.

Dr. COOPER appeared for plaintiff and Mr. H. O. ELLIS (instructed by Mr. J. F. SYMONDS) for defendant.

The amount was reduced to £22 16s.

Dr. COOPER stated deceased had lodged for many years with plaintiff, and when he died owed for weeks' board and lodgings. Defendant had been of work for that period, and so was unable to pay. She did not turn him out because he always promised to pay. On his death, over £27 was paid to the brothers, who were his executors, by the Oddfellows' Friendly Society.

Mr. ELLIS cited authorities to show that relatives as the circumstances stood, were not liable to pay the debt out of the money received from the Society.

His HONOUR ruled against Mr. Ellis on this point. According to the law defendants were bound to pay creditors with the effects. The three brothers, who it seemed, were the next of kin were not entitled to appropriate any of the money before paying deceased's debts.

Plaintiff was called and gave evidence as to the debt.

Plaintiff's two daughters corroborated. Mr. ELLIS submitted that the claim was a bogus claim, and called evidence contradicting that given by plaintiff and her witnesses.

Frederick Ayres, a wheelwright, said when he saw plaintiff at the time of his brother's death she said she knew he owed anything but 15s. on a suit of clothes and 9s. for club money. On May 9th plaintiff came to his house "for her money." Witness supposed she referred to the small sums in question. The bill was, however, for £22 odd. Witness took no notice of it.

Wm. Ayres, gardener, of King's College, also stated that plaintiff said nothing at the time about the debt, and Henry Ayres, a miller, corroborated.

Mrs. Wm. Ayres and Mrs. Hy. Ayres gave confirmatory evidence.

His HONOUR gave judgment for defendants, with costs.

BANKRUPTCY BUSINESS.

Re SAVAGE.—Mr. Briggs Savage, a grocer, Stretham, Ely, applied for his discharge from bankruptcy. His HONOUR commented on the unsatisfactoriness of some of the facts, and among others on the debtor's suppression, in his dealing with Messrs. Spence, Turner, and Boldero, of the fact that there were moneylenders' claims on the property. He also criticised his action in paying money to his son before his bankruptcy.—The OFFICIAL RECEIVER stated that the debtor had given him every information. He was an old man and had traded for a good many years. He seemed to have been latterly rather under the influence of his son. His HONOUR suspended the debtor's discharge for two years.

It is stated the authority of the Bishop of London that the questions which have arisen in connection with Mr. E. T. Hooley's gift of gold communion plate to St. Paul's Cathedral have been happily settled, the cost having been paid to the Official receiver by donors who desire to remain anonymous.

Dr. Finlay's old wards are mainly to be converted into a sitting-room and bedrooms for the House-Surgeons, who will henceforth "roost" together.

Medicals are becoming quite æsthetic. For days the lengthening locks of a fifth year's man had proved an eyesore to his comrades. In vain they remonstrated. Then did two solemnly seize the culprit, and, despite stentorinous cries of "enough," the offending locks were shorn.

It is rumoured that the medicals are to present Professor Johnstone with an illuminated address on the occasion of his introductory address at Marischal.

During the vacation, the researches of a No. II. dresser revealed a disease not hitherto described, viz.—Ankylosis of the Great Toe Nail. The results of his investigation are to be embodied in an M.D. Thesis.

The Students' Handbook will probably be ready in about ten days.

Dr. W. R. Matthews has succeeded Dr. Angus as Senior Assistant Physician at the Asylum: Dr. Robb acts as Junior Assistant, while W. R. Moir is Clinical Clerk.

In various quarters the hope has been expressed that, as the new "Scottish Medical and Surgical Journal" has not been added to the Library Table, the Union Committee may see their way to include it in the additions to the Reading Room.

Saturday proved quite an exciting day for medicals. The election of Union Officials took place at 10, and aroused much interest and some bitterness, the Major's generalship however

THE SIRDAR AT CAMBRIDGE.

THE FREEDOM OF THE BOROUGH AND AN
HONORARY DEGREE CONFERRED.

ENTHUSIASTIC PROCEEDINGS.

The Sirdar of the Egyptian Army visited Cambridge yesterday (Thursday) to receive the Freedom of the Borough and an Honorary Degree. The Borough first had the honour of welcoming the distinguished soldier, and this was done in no niggardly spirit. Many of the inhabitants displayed flags and bunting, and had the weather been less cold and unpropitious no doubt the streets would not only have been more attractive but more crowded than they were. As it was the main thoroughfares in the neighbourhood of the Guildhall were crowded with sightseers, who manifested the warmest interest in the proceedings.

His Lordship arrived by the 10.25 G.N.R. train, and although the time of his arrival was kept a secret as much as possible a small crowd assembled to give him a cordial reception. He was wearing the attire of a civilian and looked remarkably well considering the hardships he has recently gone through. He was accompanied by Lord Edward Cecil and Major Watson, D.S.O., the Sirdar's senior A.D.C. On the platform he was met by the Master of Christ's, Alderman T. Hyde Hills, Councillor Captain Stevens, R.N., and Mr. E. K. Peile, son of Dr. Peile. Another outburst of cheering took place as the Sirdar entered the carriage, attached to a pair of horses, outside the station, and drove to Christ's College.

the banks of that historic river, which just a century ago witnessed the triumph of another Horatio, [cheers], also like your Lordship an East Anglian, Baron Nelson of the Nile. [Renewed cheers.]

"We have watched with sustained interest the creation, through years of patient toil, of that army of Egyptians and Sudanese which, fighting in line with our own British Soldiers under your Lordship's command, has recovered for Egypt her lost Provinces and made Atbara and Omdurman names of glory throughout Egypt and the whole British Empire. [Cheers.]

"In carrying out the plans of an extensive campaign, both on river and on land, great difficulties [were cheerfully encountered and vigorously overcome. [Cheers.] The long line of iron road from Assouan to the Atbara, laid down for warlike purposes, will we hope prove a blessing to a peaceful country. [Cheers.]

"The high military capacity which provided for every detail, the steady and continuous advance on the point of attack, the decisive vigour of the final blow, struck on the appointed day, commanded our warmest admiration. [Cheers.]

"The chief object of your Lordship's noble ambition was reached when on the field of Omdurman, within sight of Khartum stained with Gordon's blood, the ruthless tyranny of the usurper was crushed for ever [cheers], and the fair Provinces of the Sudan were restored to peaceful Husbandry and opened to the Commerce of the World. [Cheers.]

"The whole country rejoices that your Lordship, even in the flush of recent victory, should have so appreciated the delicate relations with the enterprising representative of a jealous and sensitive Power as to allow no pretext for the outbreak of a conflict. [Cheers.]

"We congratulate your Lordship on the fresh tokens of approbation which Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen has been pleased to grant, and we pray, that there may be in store for you many years of honourable activity and of distinguished service to your Sovereign and your Country. [Prolonged cheers.]

"Given under our Common Seal this twenty-fourth day of November, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight.

"GEORGE KETT, Mayor.

"J. E. L. WHITEHEAD, Town Clerk."

The MAYOR: I have now the pleasure of giving to your Lordship the casket containing the Freedom of the Borough, together with the address which has just been read to you. [Loud cheers.]

The SIRDAR, whose rising was the signal for a loud outburst of cheering, said: Mr. Mayor and Members of the Corporation: I have to express to you my very sincere thanks for the high honour you have done me in admitting me into the freedom of this ancient Borough and also for the very flattering address which has been given me in this very beautiful casket, which I shall always prize very dearly. [Cheers.] Our family has been so long associated with Cambridge and with the College, and elsewhere [cheers], that it gives me additional pleasure in coming here to-day and in thanking you very sincerely for the kind way in which you have received me. [Prolonged cheers.]

The Sirdar and the Mayor left the hall together, followed by the Deputy Mayor and Mrs. Peile, the Master of Christ's, the Aldermen and Councillors, and finally by the general public. His Lordship afterwards proceeded to Downing College, where he lunched with the Vice-Chancellor.

The Guard of Honour was inspected by the Sirdar, who expressed himself pleased with the smartness of the men.

THE HONORARY DEGREE.

Two o'clock was the hour fixed for the Sirdar's arrival at the Senate House to receive his honorary degree. Quite an hour previously a crowd began to form outside, and ticket holders to pour into the building. Long before Lord Kitchener's arrival the street from Caius College to King's Gates was packed, whilst scores found points of vantage on the various buildings around. A lay figure of a Dervish occupied the exalted position which eighteen months ago was given to the "New Woman," and received equally complimentary attentions. Most of the fun, however, was of course in the Senate House. The undergraduates had their usual fling and enjoyed it to the full. Before the arrival of the Sirdar their wits were exercised on the older generation beneath, with one or two exceptions the banter was somewhat stereotyped. One distinctly original idea was conceived by some nimble spirits in the gallery, and no sooner conceived than put into practice. A length of hose was raked out, apparently from the roof, and artlessly passed from hand to hand. At first it seemed that the manipulators only wished to convey a playful impression of their advantage. This confidence was soon dispelled, as a stream of water gently descended upon those below. "It's only a passing shower" was reassuringly whispered from above, but in spite of this assurance one or two of the victims appeared to think it a rather one-sided joke. Vigorous choruses of "The soldiers of the Queen," and "A little British Army," helped to keep the time from dragging.

Greater enthusiasm has perhaps never been accorded any public man in Cambridge than that which greeted the Sirdar when he drove up and entered the Senate House by the Green entrance. Tremendous cheering outside warned the occupants of his approach and when, preceded by the Esquire Bedells, the Vice-Chancellor and the Registrar, the commanding figure of Lord Kitchener, wearing a doctor's gown over his uniform, appeared in the

he had graduated [laughter], but he did not disdain sharing the privileges of membership of their Society. [Loud cheers.]

Mr. Y. R. P. SOLATER, of Emmanuel College, Secretary to the Society, remarked that it might seem a small thing that Lord Kitchener should be asked to become an honorary member of their Society, and doubtless in comparison with the innumerable honours, military and civil, national and municipal which had been heaped upon him, it was a small thing; but he was sure that the Sirdar would not regard the feeling that was at the back of that motion as a small thing, that feeling which showed that their welcome was spontaneous from the hearts and lips of three thousand Cambridge undergraduates. [Cheers.] It would be quite as unnecessary, as it would be futile for him to go through the long tale of Lord Kitchener's achievements. Who amongst them could measure the impetus given to civilization in Africa by that mighty beginning? And if it was beyond their ken to decide such things as those, there was one thing they did know and that was that that impetus had been given by Lord Kitchener. [Cheers.] He had much pleasure in seconding the motion and he left it with perfect confidence to the enthusiastic acclamations of the house. [Prolonged cheers.]

The PRESIDENT: Is there any opposition to this motion? [Laughter.] I declare this motion carried unanimously.

A scene of the wildest enthusiasm followed. The undergraduates rose in a body, cheered and waved their college caps for several minutes. When the cheers had subsided,

The PRESIDENT said by passing that motion they had created a precedent, but he thought it was a precedent which no member of the Union would ever have cause to regret. [Hear, hear and cheers.]

LORD KITCHENER, addressing the President, said: I thank you, Sir, and the members of this Society for the great honour you have done me in electing me a member of this Society. I am sorry that owing to the want of a University training I did not have the chance of exercising eloquence in a Society such as this in my early years, and I am not very good at speaking. [Laughter.] As this House is the first assembly in which I have spoken, and as I have now been graciously placed in another House where I may have to speak [loud cheers]—I hope I may meet a great many of you there—all I can say, gentlemen, is that this warm and enthusiastic reception you have given me show that soldierly spirit and enthusiastic patriotism still exist in the young generation that is growing up to hold the old-mother country together. [Cheers.] I only wish I had some of you with me in the Sudan. [Cheers.] I can only express my very sincere thanks to you for the very kind reception you have given me and the honour you have done me. [Loud cheers.]

As the Sirdar left the hall, in company with the President, and the Master of Christ's, the students sang "For he's a jolly good fellow."

In the evening the Sirdar dined with the Master of Christ's and a reception was afterwards held at the Lodge.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

The perfect success of the day was unfortunately marred by a serious accident outside the Senate House. The crowd gathered in the roadway had been kept away from the heavy iron fence bounding Senate House Green, but just at the time of the Sirdar's arrival they rushed across and clambered on to the masonry. The weight was too much for the fence and it gradually heeled over towards the road. The iron broke in sections, and the alarm was given in time to enable most of those near to get clear, but several persons were caught and more or less seriously injured. Help was immediately forthcoming and the sufferers removed as quickly as possible. The list of injured includes the following:—

Mr. Pim, Christ's College, broken foot.
Mr. Hibbins, St. John's College, left hand and right wrist injured.

Mr. Havelock, St. John's College, chest injuries.
Mr. Hood, Christ's College, damaged foot.

Mr. Findlay, Caius College, crushed ankles.
Mr. Longsdale, Trinity College, bruised legs.

Shocks and minor injuries were sustained by several persons who were unfortunate enough to be beneath the railings when they fell.

It should be mentioned that the Borough police were assisted by many of the County constabulary during the day. Considerable forbearance was shown in dealing with the crowd.

BONFIRE ON THE MARKET HILL.

Early in the evening people began to assemble on Market Hill and by 8 o'clock there was an enormous crowd. Fireworks were discharged and soon a fire was in progress opposite Mr. Roe's shop. Fuel was obtained in large quantities and when the stock became low parties of undergraduates, in some cases numbering at least 200, scoured the town for wood. Unfortunately they did not confine themselves to taking all the empty boxes they could find, but hand carts, valuable building materials, young trees, garden fences, goal posts—in fact, every moveable thing was taken and thrown on the fire. The band pavilion on Christ's Pieces was partially wrecked and all the music stands were taken and used as fuel. A small body of undergraduates carrying

THE SIRDAR AT CAMBRIDGE.

THE FREEDOM OF THE BOROUGH AND AN
HONORARY DEGREE CONFERRED.

ENTHUSIASTIC PROCEEDINGS.

The Sirdar of the Egyptian Army visited Cambridge yesterday (Thursday) to receive the Freedom of the Borough and an Honorary Degree. The Borough first had the honour of welcoming the distinguished soldier, and this was done in no niggardly spirit. Many of the inhabitants displayed flags and bunting, and had the weather been less cold and unpropitious no doubt the streets would not only have been more attractive but more crowded than they were. As it was the main thoroughfares in the neighbourhood of the Guildhall were crowded with sightseers, who manifested the warmest interest in the proceedings.

His Lordship arrived by the 10.25 G.N.R. train, and although the time of his arrival was kept a secret as much as possible a small crowd assembled to give him a cordial reception. He was wearing the attire of a civilian and looked remarkably well considering the hardships he has recently gone through. He was accompanied by Lord Edward Cecil and Major Watson, D.S.O., the Sirdar's senior A.D.C. On the platform he was met by the Master of Christ's, Alderman T. Hyde Hills, Councillor Captain Stevens, R.N., and Mr. E. K. Peile, son of Dr. Peile. Another outburst of cheering took place as the Sirdar entered the carriage, attached to a pair of horses, outside the station, and drove to Christ's College. At the College yet another ovation awaited the Sirdar, and the reception he received from the students as he walked across the court to the Master's Lodge was unmistakably hearty and an indication of the greeting which would be accorded him when he attended the Senate House for his honorary degree. At the Master's Lodge he was introduced to the Mayor (Alderman G. Kett), the Deputy Mayor (Alderman S. R. Ginn), and the Town Clerk (Mr. J. E. L. Whitehead).

The guard of honour for the proceedings at the Guildhall was furnished by the 3rd (Cambs.) Volunteer Battalion Suffolk Regiment. It consisted of Major B. W. Beales (commanding), Lieut. Lilley, Colour-Sergt. Benton, Colour-Sergt. Holloway, Sergt. Moden, Sergt. Doughty and fifty men, the number allowed by the Queen's regulations for the reception of a distinguished person, other than Royalty. At 11 o'clock they paraded in Parson's Court and subsequently marched via Peas Hill to Market Hill. Immediately facing the main entrance a square was roped off and here the band of the Battalion played selections of music. The front portion of the Guildhall was barricaded and the steps leading to the large room where the ceremony took place were carpeted. In the vestibule there was a profusion of palms and plants; the floor was covered with rugs, and drapery, &c., completely concealed from view the unattractive walls.

Inside the hall the arrangements were most complete. The floor of the hall was covered with crimson cloth, and the seats of the Councilmen were arranged as in the Council Chamber. The Mayor and Aldermen and the distinguished visitor were seated on the platform. At the foot of the table facing the Mayor were the Corporation maces and beneath the platform was a small dais, containing a table for the Town Clerk. To the left of the dais was a table containing a beautiful silver casket for the reception of the documents conferring the Freedom of the Borough upon the Sirdar and an illuminated address. The casket, which was specially designed by Mr. D. Mussey, bore the arms of the Borough, in illuminated relief, and it was surmounted by a statue of Liberty. The casket was lined with light blue silk plush. At the table were seated the bailiffs, Councillors F. Morley, C. H. Banham, T. Nichols, and W. Flack. The ratepayers who were fortunate in securing tickets of admission to the building, were ushered to seats by several well-known townsmen. The orchestra and gallery, as well as the body of the hall, were crowded with spectators. The gallery was adorned with green and yellow drapery, and on each side of the clock was a large flag. The members of the Council commenced to arrive at 11.45 a.m., and at twelve o'clock the proceedings began.

The following members of the Council answered the roll call:—The Mayor, Aldermen H. Darwin, A. Deck, S. R. Ginn, T. Hyde Hills, Dr. Kenny, W. B. Redfern, W. P. Spalding, H. M. Taylor, J. Taylor, and S. L. Young; Councillors G. H. Banham, W. G. Bell, W. W. Buckland, J. Burford, T. Coulson, Dr. Dalton, J. N. Digby, J. M. Dodds, L. Ewbank, W. Flack, H. J. Gray, A. Matthew, F. Morley, A. Negus, T. Nichols, G. Peck, C. A. E. Pollock, J. Rae, A. Rutter, E. Slingsby, G. Smith, G. Stace, Capt. Stevens, F. Swann, A. I. Tillyard, Dr. Waraker, F. Ward, C. B. Warrington, H. G. Whibley, J. A. Wootton and E. C. Young. The other officials present were the Town Clerk, the Medical Officer of Health (Dr. B. Anningson), the Clerk of the Peace (Mr. G. W. Fitch), the Borough Coroner (Mr. H. Saunders French), the Borough Accountant (Mr. Ingliss), the Mayor's Chaplain (the Rev. Dr. H. P. Stokes), the Organising Technical Instruction Secretary (Mr. Austin Keen), and the Borough Organist (Mr. F. Dewberry).

Amongst others present we noticed the Master of Trinity (the Rev. Dr. Butler), the Master of Clare degree. Quite an hour previously a crowd began to form outside, and ticket holders to pour into the building. Long before Lord Kitchener's arrival the street from Caius College to King's Gates was packed, whilst scores found points of vantage on the various buildings around. A lay figure of a Dervish occupied the exalted position which eighteen months ago was given to the "New Woman," and received equally complimentary attentions. Most of the fun, however, was of course in the Senate House. The undergraduates had their usual fling and enjoyed it to the full. Before the arrival of the Sirdar their wits were exercised on the older generation beneath, with one or two exceptions the banter was somewhat stereotyped. One distinctly original idea was conceived by some nimble spirits in the gallery, and no sooner conceived than put into practice. A length of hose was raked out, apparently from the roof, and artlessly passed from hand to hand. At first it seemed that the manipulators only wished to convey a playful impression of their advantage. This confidence was soon dispelled, as a stream of water gently descended upon those below. "It's only a passing shower" was reassuringly whispered from above, but in spite of this assurance one or two of the victims appeared to think it a rather one-sided joke. Vigorous choruses of "The Soldiers of the Queen," and "A little British Army," helped to keep the time from dragging.

Greater enthusiasm has perhaps never been accorded any public man in Cambridge than that which greeted the Sirdar when he drove up and entered the Senate House by the Green entrance. Tremendous cheering outside warned the occupants of his approach and when, preceded by the Esquire Bedells, the Vice-Chancellor and the Registrar, the commanding figure of Lord Kitchener, wearing a doctor's gown over his uniform, appeared in the doorway, there was a perfectly deafening roar. After the Sirdar, who was accompanied by Lord Edward Cecil, there came the Heads of Colleges, Doctors in Divinity, Law, Medicine, Science and Letters, and Music, the Public Orator, the Librarian, Professors, Members of the Council of the Senate, and lastly the Proctors. A detachment of the C.U.R.V. under Capt. H. G. Comber and Lieut. H. Bacon acted as a Guard of Honour. "A little British Army" was again in request as the procession moved down towards the west end of the building, the Sirdar meanwhile smilingly bowing his acknowledgements. Throughout the reading of the Graces there was a continuous rattle of facetious or facetious remarks from the gallery. The Public Orator (Dr. Sandys) had to similarly "face the music" in introducing Lord Kitchener. At the end of one of his well balanced periods someone mournfully chimed in "The sands of time are sinking," a pun which naturally led up to allusions about the sandy regions whence the Sirdar had come. Another gentleman probably thought Dr. Kitchener shared his aversion to classics, and warned Dr. Sandys that he was "stumping Kitchener." "You aves to ave it whether you likas it or not," came in sympathising tones from a different quarter.

In presenting Major-General HORATIO HERBERT, BARON KITCHENER, for the degree of LL.D. honoris causa, the PUBLIC ORATOR, Dr. Sandys, began the three hundredth Latin speech he has delivered in the Senate House by welcoming the Sirdar as one quem titulo novo Regina Victoria victorem ornavit. Ireland and East Anglia had vied in claiming him, and Great Britain at large might well be proud of him. Aided by the strong support of a great administrator, he had by prudent forethought and protracted preparation carried a long campaign to its completion at the minimum of cost and the maximum of efficiency, and had brought a most difficult war to a successful conclusion. On a day determined beforehand by himself he had fought a battle near the confluence of the two great streams of the Nile, and by a glorious victory had enhanced for ever the ancient fame of the British arms as well as the recent reputation of the Egyptian soldiery. After thirteen years of waiting he had stood forth as the 'avenger of Gordon' and the champion of Egypt, had overthrown a cruel and barbarous tyranny, and had reconquered for Egypt a vast extent of country. On a later day, how admirable was the courtesy which marked the intercourse of the Sirdar and Major Marchand, that unexpected emissary and standard-bearer of a neighbouring nation, who had boldly crossed Africa and had for a while retained possession of what had since been called the 'pestilential marsh' of Fashoda. On the Sirdar's recent return to England, while leading statesmen had been vying with one another in their eulogies, with what dignity and modesty he had claimed no credit for himself but had assigned it all to his comrades and his soldiers. By the aid of such brave warriors as these, a new fulfilment had been given to the ancient oracle of Jupiter Ammon, declaring that all the land watered by the Nile was Egypt; and, by the unanimous voice of England, the world had once more realised that the Valley of the Nile was synonymous with Egypt and ought not to be exposed to the incursions of foreign nations. Off the mouths of the Nile, just a century ago, a new glory had been added to the well-omened name of Horatio Nelson, the very letters of whose name were the same as those of honor est a Nilo; and now, from the banks of that same river, fame had shone forth once more on another Horatio, and (as before) on East Anglia too, and on all that bear the British name.

The Public Orator, at the conclusion of his speech, shook hands with Lord Kitchener, and then the Vice-Chancellor rose and conferred on him the degree of Doctor of Laws in the Latin formula.

injured. Help was immediately forthcoming and the sufferers removed as quickly as possible. The list of injured includes the following:—

Mr. Pim, Christ's College, broken foot.
Mr. Hibbins, St. John's College, left hand and right wrist injured.
Mr. Havelock, St. John's College, chest injuries.
Mr. Hood, Christ's College, damaged foot.
Mr. Findlay, Caius College, crushed ankles.
Mr. Longsdale, Trinity College, bruised legs.
Shocks and minor injuries were sustained by several persons who were unfortunate enough to be beneath the railings when they fell.

It should be mentioned that the Borough police were assisted by many of the County constabulary during the day. Considerable forbearance was shown in dealing with the crowd.

BONFIRE ON THE MARKET HILL.

Early in the evening people began to assemble on Market Hill and by 8 o'clock there was an enormous crowd. Fireworks were discharged and soon a fire was in progress opposite Mr. Roe's shop. Fuel was obtained in large quantities and when the stock became low parties of undergraduates, in some cases numbering at least 200, scoured the town for wood. Unfortunately they did not confine themselves to taking all the empty boxes they could find, but hand carts, valuable building materials, young trees, garden fences, goal posts—in fact, every moveable thing—was taken and thrown on the fire. The band pavilion on Christ's Pieces was partially wrecked and all the music stands were taken and used as fuel. A small body of undergraduates carrying the steps of the stand to the Market Hill were met, when opposite Christ's College, by two constables. The stops were at once dropped and the students ran away. For safety the constables took the steps inside the gateway of Christ's College. The whole band-stand would have been wrecked but for the arrival of Superintendent Turrell with three or four constables. The greater part of the materials for the fire came from "The Backs." The fellows' gardens were completely stripped of the fences, and portions of the heavy fences next to the road were pulled up and taken to the fire. Other things that were thrown on the fire included the finger post for Queens'-road and a garden roller. The Town Hall clock and the windows of several of the houses formed targets for many undergraduates. Few could hit the clock, but, unfortunately, windows were broken, although not so many as on the memorable occasion in the May term last year. Early this morning the Market Hill presented the appearance of having been in the hands of a mob. The intense heat completely smashed all the glass in two of the lamps near the conduit, and the débris of the fire consisted of many cart loads. It was not until after 11 o'clock last night that the fire began to go down, and then, later on, the hose was brought out and water poured on the embers. The fire was on a much larger scale than the one held to celebrate the rejection of the grace conferring honorary degrees upon women.

Peters, and many others.

The minutes of the previous meeting of the Council having been confirmed,

The MAYOR requested those present to keep their seats until after the ceremony and the Sirdar and the members of the Council had left the hall.

At quarter past twelve loud cheers outside the building announced the arrival of the Sirdar. The Mayor, the Deputy Mayor, and the Town Clerk received the visitors at the entrance to the Guildhall. His Lordship was accompanied by the Master of Christ's and Mrs. Peile, the latter of whom was escorted to the platform by the Deputy Mayor. The audience rose and cheered with the utmost enthusiasm until the Sirdar and those who accompanied him ascended the platform and took their seats.

The TOWN CLERK read the minutes of the Council authorising the admittance of Lord Kitchener to the honorary freedom of the Borough, amidst loud cheers.

The roll book was afterwards handed to the Sirdar for signature and the casket was brought to the Mayor for presentation by the bailiffs.

The TOWN CLERK next read the illuminated address, of which the following is a copy:—

"To Major-General the Right Honourable Horatio Herbert Baron Kitchener of Khartoum and of Aspell in the County of Suffolk, in the Peerage of the United Kingdom, G.C.B., K.C.M.G., Sirdar of the Egyptian Army. [Cheers.]

The Public Orator, at the conclusion of his speech, shook hands with Lord Kitchener, and then the Vice-Chancellor rose and conferred on him the degree of Doctor of Laws in the Latin formula. After the ceremony "He's a jolly good fellow" was sung, and three cheers given for the Sirdar.

On regaining his carriage Lord Kitchener found that his ordeal was by no means over. Out came the horses and one of the densest crowds that has ever filled our streets dragged him round to Christ's College. With great good humour he allowed his admirers to work their will with him, and this they did with a vengeance, and in the excitement the fore part of the carriage was broken away. Even within Christ's College he was not beyond their clutches. The small detachment of the police at the gates were "rushed" in no time, and even when under the shelter of the Master's house the Sirdar was obliged to come forward and bow more than once from the windows.

AT THE UNION ROOMS.

About 3.30 p.m. a special meeting of the Union Society was held to admit the Sirdar an honorary member of the Society. Mr. Langdon Davies, Pembroke College, President, presided, and there were present, in addition to the Sirdar, the Master of Trinity, the Master of Christ's, Prof. E. C. Clark, the Public orator (Dr. Sandys), the Registrar (Mr. J. Willis Clark), Mr. Oscar Browning and others. The hall was completely packed with students quite a half-hour before the proceedings commenced. The gallery was occupied by ladies.

Mr. T. F. R. McDONNELL, St. John's College, Vice-President, moved "That Lord Kitchener of Khartoum and Aspell, K.C.B., K.C.M.G. be elected an honorary member of the Society." He said the Society before now had had the privilege of receiving as visitors persons of distinction, and in the president's chair there had sat men, who in after life, had made their mark on history and had proved themselves useful to their country. Never before, so far as he could discover, had a meeting in that hall been attended by a gallant representative of the profession of arms [cheers], and never before, he ventured to say, had the members of the Cambridge Union had the honour of meeting one who had rendered such services not only to the Empire, whose influence he had upheld, but also to the cause of humanity at large. [Cheers.] Their visitor that day was now a Doctor of Laws. [Cheers.] In "cannon" law [laughter] and in international law
